Adjutant General Dickson said today that the situation was well in hand, and that while the embers of race hatred were doubtless still smouldering, ne feared no further outbreak. During the night several calls were made for troops at points within the zone and in some instances shots were fired, but quick responses to the summons led to suppression of the altercations. The night, as was the day it followed, developed no serious disorders.

> President Carranza gave assurances that Mexico would place no barriers against proper immigration and, in fact would extend all possible aid to such prospective colonists. That such material aid is in contemplation is evidenced by the fact that the president recently appointed a commission to in vestigate all phases of the colonization problem. Senor Luis Luderty Rul, president of the commission, has announced that communications have been received from England, France, Canada, Germany and Russia in regard to the feasibility of colonies in the republic and in each instance the answer has been that Mexico welcomes all dependable colonists.

With Latin America

Senor Carranza was asked whether the Mexican government had any polcy concerning Latin-America which might be construed as indicating that the solidarity of such countries was more to be desired by Mexico with Italy than with any other foreign nation. He replied that today the Mexican government was considering no project of union and until such a proposition presents itself be refused to
